Congratulations! If you have successfully completed Steps 1 and 2 you are now eligible to bid on OPA's online auction. Continue with Step 3 to complete the process.

Step #3:

Deciding how to place your bid – absentee or live? There are 2 ways to bid on a painting. You must decide what works best for you!

First Way: Placing an Absentee Bid:

Buyers can place absentee bids anytime during the three week preview period which runs from November 13 through December 3, 2015.

How it works: LiveAuctioneers' system will bid on your behalf against other competing bids up to the maximum bid price you have placed. At no time are other bidders or the auction company made aware of your maximum bid amount.

As an absentee bidder you do not need to be present during the auction. OPA & LiveAuctioneers will notify you if your bid has been accepted.

Second Way: Bidding During the Live Auction:

If you would prefer to bid “live” during the actual auction, please plan on being online promptly at 10:00 a.m. Central Time, on Thursday, December 4th. Don’t forget – you must have already completed Steps 1 and 2 well in advance to place a bid. Like an actual auction, paintings will be sold one at a time. If there is little or no bidding activity on a particular painting, the auction for that painting will then be completed and closed. The system will then move to the next painting up for sale.

You Are Ready to Place Your Bid!

Once you have completed Steps #1 – #3, you are eligible to participate in OPA’s online auction. If you want to place your bid beforehand – then do so anytime. If you prefer to wait until the live auction then mark your calendar and we will see you on Thursday, December 4, at 10:00 a.m. Central Time.
